

School specific support

- We provide training for tutors or TAs in how to best support your child in school.
- The aim of this support is to maximise independence and inclusion and to make the most of every learning and social opportunity
- We can provide whole-school training on autism or other bespoke courses.
- Our staff are experienced in writing annual review reports IEP targets and being part of the school monitoring process.
- Our staff can also design and introduce social skills sessions, and help schools write behaviour support plans.
